TRIUMPH IN

GARMENT PRICING.

Stylish, exclusive garments priced at figures that are seldom quoted on garments of this character. They are made particularly for those exacting in matters pertaining to dress, who recognize and insist upon having every feature essential to a garment of character and are the only kinds that are really worth possessing:

Sale of Walking Skirts--

On account of the inclement weather of the past week, we have decided to continue our big sale of Walking Skirts for a few days longer. These garments are made in a variety of fabrics, they attract attention on account of their correctness of patterns, richness of shadings and elegance of finish. Each is a garment of exquisite in design and faultless in workmanship. Although superior in every way to the regular $7 and $7.50 Skirts, we offer them for a few days longer at $5.00 A PIECE.

Brie-a-Brae Department--

This section of our large establishment is teeming with seasonable novelties, all new and odd, including some great values in rich Cut Glass, large hand painted Plaques of Limoges workmanship, Japanese cloisonne and Burnt Wood in every design imaginable.

LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY.

Dean Lee, the popular rector of Christ Church Cathedral, Lexington, will deliver his lecture on General Robert E. Lee on Thursday, December 11th, at 7:45 p. m., at the Grand Opera House. Tickets on sale at Clark's drugstore. Admission, 50 cents. This lecture, which is Dean Lee's masterpiece, will be an intellectual treat, and it is desired that he be greeted by a large audience. The speaker is too well known to need an introduction to Paris people, as he has spoken here on several occasions, and has each time charmed his hearers. The lecture is given under the auspices of the Episcopal Church, of this city, and the ladies earnestly request that a large crowd will come out on next Thursday night.

The sale of seats will open at Borland's this morning.

THE LODGE OF SORROW.

The Elks Hold an Interesting Service at the Christian Church, in Honor of Their Dead.

The Christian church was well filled on Sunday night to hear the memorial services of the local lodge, B. P. O. E., No. 373. The Elks assembled at their lodge room and marched in a body to the church.

After an organ recital by Miss Fithian, the opening ceremonies were held, which was followed by a chorus (Slabat Mater). Elder Lloyd Darlie led in prayer. Mr. Howard sang a most beautiful solo, "If With All Your Hearts," from Elijah. Mrs. Fithian also sang very sweetly a solo, entitled, "Father, Have Mercy." Next came the chorus, "Unfold Ye Portals," after which the closing ceremonies took place and the benediction was said.

The opening ceremonies by the officers of the lodge were quite impressive, and were under the direction of Hon. E. M. Dickson, who feelingly spoke of the purpose of the meeting and called upon the Secretary, Mr. E. H. Owings, to call the roll. The roll call of "absent members" were

JAMES CONNOR.

In a neat speech, Mr. Dickson introduced the Hon. W. P. Kimball, of Lexington, who had been selected to deliver the memorial address. Mr. Kimball spoke in a way that touched the hearts of all those present, and his remarks were couched with wholesome advice to the brothers of the lodge. He is certainly a fine speaker and all were delighted with his remarks. Among other things, Mr. Kimball spoke of the four cardinal principles of the order—Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love and Fidelity. He said that Charity was the foundation stone—the charity which feeds the hungry and clothes the naked, and wipes the tears of distress from sorrowing eyes, which nurses the sick, and buries the dead, and knows no limit in its gentle ministrations.

Justice, he said, was another attribute of the order, which is opposed to all forms of oppression of every kind, which essays to protect the weak against the tyranny of the strong, to uphold the right and condemn the wrong.

Brotherly love with the Elks embraces not only members of the order but extends to every class of the great brotherhood of man.

The Fidelity, he said, which is the last link in the chain is one of the brightest and most beautiful. True as steel to one another in life, not even death can snap the tie which binds together the members of the order.

"The faults of our brothers we write upon the sands; their virtues upon the tablets of Love and Memory," is the maxim of the Elks, and every year these solemn and impressive services are consecrated to the memory of their dead prove how loyal is the allegiance of the order to departed friends as well as to living brothers.

The musical part of the programme was a special feature of the exercises and was most beautiful. It was under the direction of Dr. Frank Fithian, who spared no time in drilling the choruses and to make it the success that it was.

OLD MAN DOWIE is a good one. Besides saving souls, he has managed to save $15,000,000 and it doesn't matter to him how many coal strikes we have.

CALDER POWERS has for the second time been granted a new trial. Ain't you glad? The News has always claimed that the punishment was entirely too light for the crime. The Court of Appeals did right in reversing the decision on my old grounds.—Georgetown News.
